

DEPTH STUDIES WITH TARONGA ZOO

Year 11 Earth and Environmental Science EES11-1, EES11-3, EES11-4 ESS11-5, EES11-7, EES11-11

Year 11 Investigating Science INS11-1, INS11-3, INS11-4, INS11-5, INS11-7, INS11-8

Year 12 Investigating Science INS12-1, INS12-3, INS12-4, INS12-5, INS12-7, INS12-12

AUSMAP

AUSMAP is the bridge between a massive problem and the solutions.

When: Tuesday 25 February 2020

Wednesday 27 May 2020

Thursday 6 August 2020

Where: Institute for Science and Learning,
Taronga Zoo, Sydney

Time: 9.30am-2pm

What to bring:

- AusMap Student Booklet and pen
- Wet weather clothes
- Hats, sunscreen, water bottle
- In-closed shoes (that can get wet) must be worn at all times
- Morning Tea and Lunch (café available)

Program:

- 9:20am: Sign-in at ticketing
- 9:30am: Meet at Institute (inside the Zoo)
- 9:35am: AusMap overview – Student Lab
- 10:15am: Morning Tea
- 10:30am: Beach Survey - Athol Beach
- 12:00pm: Taronga Wildlife Hospital
(subject to change)
- 12:30pm: Lunch
- 1:00pm: Data collation – Student Lab
- 2:00pm: Day finished

THIS FULL DAY EXCURSION INCLUDES:

- Data collection contributing to an authentic Citizen Science project.
- Rigorous Scientific methodology.
- Workshops delivered by working scientists, keepers and teachers from Taronga and AUSMAP.
- Exposure to technologies used in conservation science.

This excursion will contribute five hours to a depth study.

Website: <https://taronga.org.au/education/full-day-programs/ausmap>

Call: 02 9978 4379

Email: aharris@zoo.nsw.gov.au

