

Fact Sheet

Wake up in the wild at Billabong Camp in Dubbo, Taronga Western Plains Zoo's exciting overnight bush camping experience! Join us for a wild adventure that will connect you with many of the Zoo's Australian and Asian animals.

What does the program include?

- One night accommodation in our canvas tents (all set up for you);
- Welcome nibbles, dinner, supper and continental buffet breakfast;
- Two day admission to Taronga Western Plains Zoo;
- An exciting range of animal encounters and guided tours where you will see Australian and Asian animals;
- 10% discount at the Zoo Shop, 10% discount at Bakhita's Cafe and 10% discount off additional booked Animal Encounters.

Availability:

The program runs on Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights throughout the year. Additional nights are offered during school holidays. Enquiries welcome. Bookings close 48 hours prior to the event.

What are the costs*?

Adult – (16 + years) – from $205 pp
Children (5 – 15 years) – from $129 pp
Family (2 Adults and 2 Children) – from $549

Please note: A surcharge applies during school holidays and public holidays. Non-refundable payment is required at the time of booking by credit card, money order, direct deposit or bank cheque.*

Fact Sheet

What are the tents like?

- Tents are 3m x 3m made from heavy duty canvas with a solid floor and can sleep up to two adults and one child (two stretcher beds with mattress and one sleeping mat)
- Groups of four will be allocated a campsite. A campsite has two tents adjacent to each other. Please let us know your preferred sleeping configuration at the time of booking.
- Groups of four or more will be allocated campsites/tents based on sleeping requirements (this will be confirmed at the time of booking).
- Stretcher beds and sleeping mats are included in the cost of your stay.

Is sleeping equipment available?

All bedding provided as well as towels and an amenities pack per tent (Shampoo, soap and shower gel). Guests need to bring their own pillow alternatively one can be hire from the Zoo for $5.

For bookings or further enquiries, contact us on: (02) 6881 1488, email stayovernight@zoo.nsw.gov.au or visit www.taronga.org.au.